Dear sweet Mike.... I can still see us in first grade/Pershing, Mrs. Lazenby's class, sitting in itty bitty chairs in the reading circle reading out loud from the Dick & Jane book. Bless his sweet heart.

*Dear Chrissy,
I'm thinking about you and praying for you in this time of sadness. Mike looked so much like your mom Shirley. I know your faith and confidence is strong that he has found peace in his heavenly home.

I just now heard of Mike's (or Leroy as I called him) passing. We were great friends as young men. I remember him to be an honorable and loyal friend who would gladly give you the shirt off his back. The world will miss him. Rest well my friend.
