“ What a lady, what a life!!! Sadly, I did not have the pleasure of knowing Michele but did share some memories with Randy and Terry in the early 1970s. I recall much laughter always seemed to surround Randy, so can easily imagine the joy he, Michele, their family and friends must have experienced in their life together. My heart aches for the many now feeling the painful loss of such an incredibly talented, fun-loving and devoted wife, mother grandmother and friend. My thoughts will be with you, Randy in these difficult days ahead, wishing warm and abundant comfort and countless sweet memories of your beloved Michele. Heartfelt sympathies, Carolyn Cahoon Watts

“ I've known Michele since 1983 when we joined maple park Christian church in Wagoner. She was a kind sweet Christian friend that I will miss dearly. Loved to listen to her piano playing. She is in heaven playing the piano and reunited with Jesus and her family now.

Michele was the speaker for communion one Sunday. She described the meaning of the emblems & you could tell how much Jesus meant to her. Our ladies class will miss her input tremendously. 💕

I so stunned to learn of Michele's passing by looking at her Facebook page. We became friends when her Dad was pastor at Stilwell FCC. We reconnected on Facebook and I had the joy of sharing lunch and a long conversation with her about a year ago. I am so sad for your family because you were her joy in life. You are in my prayers for comfort. I know Heaven is a little sweeter with her in it.
