“ It was great working with Miguel at Meijer. He always had a smile and positive attitude, even when he wasn't feeling well. Miguel listened, and was a comforting friend when I talked to him about my moms cancer battle. He gave me a little picture of beautiful pink water fountains that he took. I've kept it with me to remember my mom, and now to remember Miguel, too. I'll forever be thankful for the time he shared with his Meijer family. May he rest easy and watch over his family. He will always be in our hearts.

“ Missing you Uncle Mike. Till we meet again. We take comfort in knowing that you're not in pain anymore. I will make sure Jazmine goes to college and gets good grades. We will keep your memory alive. We will watch Goonies and Home Alone movies, eat lemon pie, drink guava juice and take beautiful photos in your honor. Thank you for the wonderful years you shared with us. We love you. Fly high and take beautiful photos up there.

“ Uncle Mike used to DJ at family parties. He had the beat set up and as a young kid in the 80's he introduced me and my siblings to the best and coolest music of the 70s and 80s. He was also a huge KC Royals baseball fan. He and Aunt Dilma took us to meet Frank White on the field ahead of game time.
