Modena was born July 27, 1926 in Braggs, OK the daughter of William Alonzo and Jurdia (Kirk) Summers. A lifelong resident of Braggs, she graduated from Northeastern State University, and taught at Braggs Elementary, until she married the love of her life, Dewey Hutchens, on December 11, 1946. Modena then began her true calling as homemaker, wife, and mother to Donnie and Judy. Modena and Dewey were married for 70 wonderful years until Dewey's passing on January 1, 2017.

Modena was a God-fearing woman. She served faithfully and diligently as Treasurer for First Baptist Church of Braggs for many years until her health began to fail her. Just as importantly, she was the loving matriarch of her large family and was known as "Granny" to many- even those not of relation to her because of her warm and caring personality. Modena passed away on November 6, 2019 in Muskogee, OK surrounded by family. She is survived by her son, Donnie Hutchens and wife Owana of Porter; daughter, Judy Black of Braggs; grandchildren, Karrie Englebretson and husband Dave of Braggs, Rowdy Fewel and wife Terra of Muskogee, Amy Novara and husband Carl of Owasso, Cody Fewel of Porter, Zach Munzenrider and wife Rebecca of Braggs, Josh Munzenrider of New York, and Stephanie Blevins of Muskogee; ten great-grandchildren; and sister, Leta Doolin and husband Howard of Braggs. She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Dewey Hutchens; grandson, Brad Hutchens; brothers, Clyde and Billy Summers; and sisters, Maxine Stanfill and Weeta Loice Summers.
