

Myra Ellen Tyler

September 24, 1959 - November 19, 2010

Myra Ellen Tyler, 51, Braggs, Oklahoma, passed from this life on Friday, November 19, 2010. Myra was born September 24, 1959 in Muskogee, Oklahoma to Leonard and Darlene Tyler. Myra grew up with her four sisters in the small town of Braggs, Oklahoma. After graduating high school, she went on to play basketball at Bacone College. She married David Morgan on February 23, 1980. They traveled a bit before settling in Fort Gibson, Oklahoma where they made it their home and raised their kids. They were married for nineteen years. Myra worked in the Fort Gibson nursing home, Healing Hands Home Health, and then Muskogee Regional Medical Center. She loved life, and her “grand-girls” were the sparkle in her eyes. She was a loving daughter, sister, mother, “grammy”, and friend.

Myra battled allergies from the time she was a young child. Perhaps it was then, in her early years, that she learned how to deal with life as it comes, to see the good in life despite the sufferings that are sometimes part of it. She was born with a servant’s heart and a love to help others. Myra demonstrated this in her three trips to Honduras and Mexico. She continuously and modestly served others in carpooling kids to church and listening patiently to those in need. So when faced with another battle, her faith in God, and acceptance of His will remained unshakable. Cancer didn’t win the battle. It only helped this angel get her wings.

Myra was preceded in death by her father, Leonard Tyler; paternal grandparents, A.Z. and Sleetie Tyler; and maternal grandparents, Ahama and Kahorkah Phillips.

She is survived by her mother, Darlene Tyler of Braggs, Oklahoma; one son Dustin Morgan of Muskogee; daughter and son-in-law Dan'l and Myrinda Kizzia of Muskogee; two grand-daughters Andria Morgan and Aubri Kizzia; sisters; Terri Terrell and husband Butch of Braggs, Oklahoma, Polly Tyler of Tahlequah, Oklahoma, Cindy Tyler of Braggs, Oklahoma, and Lisa Tyler of Braggs, Oklahoma.
