Janice, thank you so much for your condolences with my mom. I'm glad you were able to know my mom for the years you did. I wish i had many more years to be with her, but God felt it was her time to go, her work on earth was done. My mom was a loving wife, mother and grandmother. Our hearts do ache so, so much but we all know she is much better with the lord than to be here suffering as she was.. thank you so much, my deepest sincere, Kristina

Kristina, I actually went to high school with your Mom and caught back up with her in the middle 90's. Your mother was always happy in school and very smart. She wanted to excel and wanted to achieve something. In the 90's When she found out that I repaired rhinestone jewelry, she would look for stones for me at yard sales or pieces of jewelry with stones missing that were 10 cents or a quarter. She brought me a huge bag of broken jewelry for me to use the stones. She was so thoughtful and kind that way. I know you girls will miss her, but your children will not get the chance to really know her as an adult. They would be amazed at what a great grandmother she was.
