“ Nicholas was my father. I love and miss him very much. Before he passed away, we were in a bad family crisis and I couldn't see my dad. I regret not seeing him to pay final goodbyes and hugs and kisses, now I'm just a 17 year old girl who no longer has her father with her. Yet with this sob story, there are many things that he did that were very good. He taught me how to draw, he tried the best way he knew how to provide three kids with anything they ever dreamed of, and he is the reason why I draw breath. I love him so dearly and I wish that one day I will be able to reunite with him once again.
