

Norman L. Fallen

September 7, 1941 - October 27, 2015

Norman Loyd Fallen, 74, of Muskogee, Oklahoma passed away Tuesday, October 27, 2015. He was born September 7, 1941 to Earl Loyd Fallen and Virginia Sue Hutchens Fallen. Norman attended Tahlequah Public Schools from which he graduated. He married Marjorie L Shaffer on September 6, 1963 in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

He worked as a salesman for Anderson Wholesale and later worked for OG&E from which he retired in 1994.

Norman will always be remembered for being a great provider for this family and doing things to the best of his ability. He enjoyed building and fixing things. He also like going to breakfast with the "Spit & Whittle Club" at Anna's Coffee Cup Café.

Norman was of the Baptist faith.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Earl and Virginia Fallen; and his daughter, Brenda Reneau.

Norman is survived by his wife, Marjorie, of the home; son, Kevin Fallen and wife Jackie of Edmond, OK; grandchildren, Allyson Fallen, Emily Fallen, and Jennifer Houghton; siblings, Sue Hernandez and husband Robert, Sammy Fallen and wife Fanny, Jequita Redfearn, all of Muskogee, OK, and Jimmy Fallen of Ft. Gibson, OK; other family members and friends who will miss him dearly.

Funeral services celebrating Norman's life will be 10:00 a.m., Friday, October 30, 2015 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Lonnie Orman Jr officiating. Interment will follow at Citizens Cemetery in Ft. Gibson with Mike Buckskin, Tom Moydell, Ben Buckskin, Kenny Jackson, Ray Armstrong, and Harold Willard serving as pallbearers.

I am so sorry to hear of Norman's death. Wish I could be there with the family tomorrow. i have lots of fond memories of Norman when we were young. He was always quiet but really funny. He was a good man, a man of integrity.

My thoughts and prayers will be with you now and in the difficult days that follow.
