I have known Berniece my entire life, but will always remember and cherish the times we spent when Aunt Edna and my mama were both in the nursing home at the same time. Also remember hearing the funny tales from James when he was building Ray and Berniece's home. Love to Peggy, Terry, Randy and the rest of the family.

“ Loved Berniece. We raised our children together. Lived by each other for 60 yrs or more,. Spent lots of time together. We was pretty ornery. We knew a lady who worked in a store that was married & she was stuck on a man we knew. When he came around her work we would call & play hit the road Jack. Then hid out. It was fun for us. Many many things we did together with the children. Could write a book. Will miss her.

“ Berniece was a beautiful lady. I always loved going to her house. Peggy and I stayed the night with each other many times. We always had such fun. Berniece cared about others. She loved her family, her extended family, and her friends. She will be missed by many. To the children (my cousins) please accept my sincere condolences. We know she is now with her beloved Ray. They were always so close, and now they are together again.
