“ Helen, I was just so very sorry to find out about Pam. It breaks my heart for you. I know you all were so very, very close. I hope you will forgive me if I don't come to the visitation or the funeral. I am staying at home most all of the time. I am just so afraid to get out and my kids are very strict with me. Please know I love you and am praying for you and the family. I hope you and David are protecting yourselves also. I wish I really had the words to express how much I miss you. My love, Liz

“ One of my favorite memories of Pam was when she made fried okra for Vince. He had mentioned on one of our visits how much he liked fried okra so the next time we visited she made him a batch with fresh okra from the garden. He was in heaven.

The last time we were there Pam gave me a gold thimble that had belonged to my mother. Mom had given it to her shortly before her death and Pam wanted me to have it back. I will always treasure it. I love you Pam and will miss you greatly.
