“ Oh, what a cool lady Paula was! Her great big smile, country ways and beautiful long hair in a braid! She was a junior high and high school classmate and we had several mutual friends, some of whom have passed on also. During a recent loss in my family, I was very much comforted by a poem given to me by the hospital staff. It gave me the mental vision of other passed family members standing on the shore of heaven saying happily, "She's here! She's here!" And takes her in their arms. What a beautiful thought! My memories of Paula will always make me smile. God be with you during this sad time.

Paula, I'll miss your big smile and hug every Sunday morning when you came to church. I know your keeping a eye on us and still smiling. Although I only knew you for a short while, I considered you a friend.
