

Phillips Stewart Smith

December 2, 1929 - July 6, 2013

Phillips Stewart Smith

Phillips Stewart Smith, a long time resident in the McAlester area, died on July 6, 2013 in Eufaula. Born in Cambridge, MA December 2, 1929 to Wendell P. Smith and Marian Hesse Smith, Mr. Smith led a rich and varied life during which he worked as a college professor of romance languages, a psychiatric social worker, and owner of a ranch near Stuart OK at which he raised cattle and buffalo. Mr. Smith received a bachelor's degree from Harvard College and a master's degree from the University of North Carolina. Mr. Smith served as an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1953-57. Prior to moving to Oklahoma in 1972, Mr. Smith lived in New England and North Carolina. Mr. Smith was an avid traveler, a passionate student of paleontology and geology, and a model railroading enthusiast.

Survivors include his wife, Tretha Smith; his children, Stephen Smith, David Smith, Carolynne Hagan, and Rebecca Glenn; and eight grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Phillips Stewart Smith

October 23, 2023 at 09:38 AM