Raymond grew up in Davis. He left high school after the 10th grade and hitchhiked to Ardmore to attend a government-sponsored welding school. After successful completion, he was sent to the Kaiser Shipyards near San Francisco, where he welded ships for several months. In 1943, he was drafted into the Army Air Corps and was sent to Bombay, India, where he helped supply the defense of China during World War II.

Returning to Oklahoma, he attended East Central State College in Ada and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Science in 1950. While attending college, he met and married the love of his life, June Watson. They were married for 71 years.

Raymond taught in many Oklahoma schools, worked at Bacone College, and was Superintendent at Braggs. He continued his studies earning a Master of Science in 1954 and a Doctorate of Education in 1972 from OSU.

He was active in the Oklahoma Retired Educators Association and the Muskogee County Democratic Party. He was a member of the Muskogee Church of Christ. He was a great believer in the works of Ralph Waldo Emerson who taught him self-reliance.

“ I didn't know about this until just now. I'm so glad he got to bless this family for 100 years! He, June, and the kids are among my earliest memories. I saw my first big screen movie with them when we were little kids, and we visited often until they moved to Muskogee. June and Raymond were a special support to my mom in 2015 when my dad was in his last days at the Muskogee VA Hospital. Good memories!

“ I knew Raymond when he was Superintendent of Braggs School. He was a kind and gracious man. Saw him recently at the memorial of a mutual friend. He seemed to be so pleased to see an old acquaintance. My sympathies to his family.
