“ We miss you greatly Becky... William will always miss your bike rides together. He has put your bike to rest. I will miss our late night conversations and mad runs to get coffee and nachos... Dailen and the girls will miss you also. You playing and watching the girls play basketball and eating Dailen's cooking, and telling her how great it was. The laughs, the cries and the love we shared. I will miss waking up and you being and sleep but as soon as I made my coffee, you were ready for yours....Chi pesa la chi ke....my sis and friend.

“ Oh Aunt B! I loved her infectious laugh. My favorite memory of her is when Annie sent out one of her group texts. Jordan somehow got added to it. She was sitting on the couch texting and giggling. I asked her who she was texting. She said Aunt Becky. I said you don't have an Aunt Becky. She said I do now. Again I said who are you talking to. She said I answered a group message and this lady said who is this. I said Jordan Annie is my Aunt. She said well I'm Annie's Aunt Beky so thateans I'm your Aunt Becky. They talked for hours. I love one bond that started that day. I love that she loved so many. She will forever be in my heart...

“ Heaven received the best person they will ever receive. There was no one like her. Well, I take that back, she raised a great daughter who is very sweet and kind also. Becky was the most upbeat, happy person I knew. I can't remember anytime she didn't have a smile on her beautiful face. I loved the times when I was younger and we would all get together at Grandma Richerson's. My parents were always ready to go home way before I was and I would always beg to stay with Becky. I don't think there was ever a time I didn't get to stay. When we would all play poker she would always sneak me extra money if she thought I had a winning hand but didn't have the money to raise and she would never get mad if I lost instead. Oh, how I miss those days. I was always up her butt when I was growing up. I should have taken more time to see her but I grew up and started a family of my own and time just gets away from you before you know it. But I never quit thinking about her. She was just such a great person I hate that she had to go through this. I don't know anyone who can say a bad word about this great women. I'm going to miss her so much. She is with Grandpa Richerson eating ice cream and cherrios and she couldn't be happier. I love you with all I have Becky. Give my Dad a big ole' hug and kiss for me.

Oh what a gift was given when God gave us Becky, but he didn't realize how devastated we all would be when He needed to call her back home with Him. Becky is always in my heart. We will see you again.

Angela Richerson - June 09, 2015 at 11:18 AM

I didn't really get to know Becky but I've heard so much about her. I met her for the first time only a few years ago and loved her right away. She will be dearly missed by all and we will never forget her. Love always for her and sorrow to see her go.
