“ I'll never forget catching that Catfish, by hand that is in the back of uncle Richards boat! I ran up to him yelling telling to him and I'll never forget the look on his face when he realized it was true! We ran up to the campsite together and what a story. And how about snipe hunting in the field next to Grandmas house? I actually thought there was such a thing and I vividly remember him shouting here snipe here snipe!! Another thing I remember was his thoughtfulness and compassion for people when they're down. We were at the lake and he noticed a family that had trouble with their boat and took them out for a long ride to make the kids happy. Thank you for the fun times you spent with us growing up. I've always considered myself fortunate to have such great Aunts and Uncles growing up. God Bless you uncle Richard. Curt Bowers

Richard worked at TCA after he left OG&E , he always had stories to tell at break time, when he started the story with the phase " now this is the gospel " you knew it was going to be funny. He was a great guy and good friend.
