““Roberta Reeder” was the most kind and loving woman. Her love for others was enormous.. I never heard one “bad” word or comment from Roberta. I admired how she ran her home raised the BEST GIRLS! I loved being a her home. She sought outside work then chose NSU for a teaching degree, she just needed the “degree”, she already knew how to teach. The girls, said they knew when she was on the phone with my momma, they had good talks, prayers and laughter! Now they are most likely Praising God, singing & laughing together. :) I will always cherish knowing Roberta Reeder, she blessed me. Love love love to all Roberta's dear wonderful awesome family xxxooo”

“ We called her “Mama Reeder” she was a mighty pillar in my life for MANY, many years. She “mamma’d me” through a divorce, losing my own mom at an early age and raising my own two teenage daughters by myself and my church family. She will long live in my heart until I see her again in heaven. Prayers for her girls and their families and grandchildren, her quiver was definitely full. “I love you MamaReeder, see you on those streets of gold gold one day”
