

Rodney Freeman Wilson

December 16, 1950 - October 30, 2025

Rodney Freeman Wilson, age 74, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, passed away Thursday, October 30, 2025. Rodney was born on December 16, 1950, in Anadarko, Oklahoma, to Woodrow Wilmon Wilson and Lillian Marie (Goombi) Wilson. His life was marked by commitment to family, community, and his proud heritage.

Rodney attended public schools and graduated from Muskogee Central High School. He furthered his education at Oklahoma State University, earning a bachelor's degree. He built a distinguished career as a chemical engineer in the oil and gas industry and retired from Chevron in 1996. Rodney's hard work and dedication left a lasting impact on his colleagues and the industry.

A proud member of the Choctaw Nation with Kiowa descent, Rodney took great pride in his heritage. He was an active member of the Tulsa Kiowa Language Club and the Kiowa Gourd Clan, working to preserve and celebrate his culture. His faith was central to his life, evident in his membership at Muskogee First Indian Baptist Church.

Rodney's love for Oklahoma State University continued throughout his life as a member of the OSU Posse Club and OSU Alumni Association. He enjoyed giving back to his community by volunteering with the Muskogee JOM and Head Start programs, always encouraging and supporting young people—especially his nieces and nephews in their sports and activities.

Rodney's legacy is one of dedication, kindness, and service. He will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Rodney was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Woodrow and Lillian Wilson.

He is survived by his two brothers, Curtis Wilson and wife Cletus of Muskogee, and Willie Wilson and wife Pam of Ada; his sister, Pamela Roughface of Muskogee; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of great and great-grand nieces and nephews, all of whom will cherish his memory and the guidance he gave.

Rodney's life will be remembered at 11AM, Thursday, November 6, 2025 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Mr. Woody Wilson and Mr. Phil Goombi officiating. Honorary pallbearers will be Cletis Satepauhoodle, Tim Goombi, Phil Goombi, Keith Miller, Bill Gray, and Ron Tabor.
