Answering the call to serve his country, Ron joined the United States Marine Corps on July 28, 1966, bravely serving during the Vietnam War. He demonstrated unwavering courage and commitment throughout his service until his honorable discharge on July 16, 1968, a period that left a profound mark on his life and character.

Upon returning home, Ron married the love of his life, Wilma Jean Johnson. Together, they shared a lifetime of love, partnership, and joy, building a warm and welcoming home filled with cherished memories. Their steadfast devotion to each other was an inspiration to all who knew them.
