“ I worked with Ronnie at JDCC and remember him as always such a nice fellow and how he loved to tease me.

“ Ronnie and I played together as kids a lot of weekends. Our fathers were like brothers. When they came to our house there was wrestling, which our dads liked. It was pretty tough for me but I learned how to squirm. I could occasionally hold my own against Ronnie, but not Connie. I was much younger and it was all in fun. When we went to Ronnie's place it was pretty amazing. We went ice skating on a pond, rode bicycles backwards up and down the driveway, rode horses and got a horse to tow us on cardboard for fun... Too many things to list.

Skipping ahead a few years both Ronnie and I worked at Futrell's in town as kids. We worked there together for several years and before we left Mr. Futrell let us help with a great deal of trust. Ronnie was pretty quite but had a great sense of humor. We had a lot of fun.

“ Ronnie was the host of my first campfire meal and it was wonderful. I was the little pest Nelson wanted to get away from. So many times, cousin Ronnie would saddle up Rusty and let me ride. I have beautiful memories. Thank you cousin. You were a bright light in my world who will be sorely missed. I love you all.
