

Roy E. McGraw Jr.

January 1, 1952 - January 15, 2020

Roy Edward McGraw, Jr., 68, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, passed away on Wednesday afternoon, January 15, 2020.

Roy, the son of Roy Edward McGraw, Sr. and Scholley Jane McGraw was born January 1, 1952, in Muskogee, Oklahoma. He was raised in Okay, Oklahoma, where he graduated from Okay High School, with the class of 1970. Following high school, Roy attended Northeastern State University.

Roy was a kind soul, with a gentle heart; he was a best friend to many.

Roy spent most of his life working at the family business, known as McGraw Motors, which was situated under a neon sign on East Side Blvd. He started working there as a child washing cars for $1.00 per hour. The company was known in Muskogee by many as the “working man’s friend,” and Roy himself was a friend to all.

When Roy was not at work, he loved to be outdoors, whether working in the yard, grilling on his patio with his wife, playing golf with friends, feeding animals (both pets and wildlife), fishing with family, or chasing after his granddaughters.

Roy was preceded in death by his father, Roy E. McGraw, Sr.

Roy is survived by his wife, Rebecca McGraw, of the home; his mother, Scholley Jane McGraw; his brother, Jeff McGraw; his son, Rake; his daughter, Alison McGraw Miller and husband Christopher; granddaughters, Coco Cox, Lucy Cox, Kaylee McCoin and Klara McCoin; step-daughter, Christen McCoin; step-son, Clint Caldwell; nephew, Dustin McGraw and wife Jennifer; any many cousins, in-laws, and other family members.

Memorial service for Roy will be at the Presbyterian Church of Muskogee, on Saturday, January 18, 2020, at 10a.m.

“ I was a Friend of Roy Sr. and he gave me the pleasure of introducing his Son's to me when they were living at the Lake. When he was sick he asked me a favor to keep an Eye on the boys...Which I did and had the pleasure of becoming a Friend with the boys and Roy and I became good Friends through the years. I haven't lived in Muskogee since the early 70's and ever-time I came to town, I would go visit Roy and have Lunch ... I'm so happy to have gotten to see him at home a few months ago,He was so concerned about all of the people he loved and trusted the Lord would lead the way for him - RIP Roy....

“ Roy and Jeff (Spike and Bird) are two of my oldest friends in life. We were next-door neighbors til we quit being kids. I was the littlest kid in the hood, but they always let me hang and took care of me. We had some great times later in life too! We were truly blessed growing up on the lake. I'm so very sorry to hear this, but I'm glad Roy's at peace - I can't think of a better human.

Prayers, love, and our most sincere condolences to Scholley, Jeffrey and all Roy's family.
