“ Roy became my father in law 49 years ago. He loved his grandson and his great grand daughters. He always had a smile when they came to visit him. They were his greatest joy. His sons and grandson helped with his care after the loss of their mom. Blessed are his caregivers during his last year. These amazing ladies stayed with him, kept him company, and cared for his every need. God bless each one of them. He was a member of our church family at Mountain View Baptist church and will be missed.
