“ Ryan was a wonderful person and I loved him. Ryan attended Warner schools with my daughter, Stefanie Moore Arias, and her best friend, Heather Clark Wilson. Ryan and Stef were middle school 4-H King and Queen and they were so happy to get to be in the parade. Ryan and the two girls were buddies in high school and through their second year of college. Ryan was always the calm and level headed one of the three. The girls were always talking him into doing something he didn't really want to do. They convinced him they should all carpool and go to NSU their freshman year. They then started working on him to go to OU with them in their sophomore year, which he did. I might add they nagged him into moving to the apartment complex where they were going to live on campus. They vacationed together to Panama City Beach one summer and a ski trip the next year. Of course, he had to drive the entire trip and unload all their bags. He was so good natured, he would put up with them when they thought they were hilarious and he would sit back and give them that killer smile of his. I never worried about them when they were traveling with Ryan because I knew he would always look out for them. Sandy and Johnny raised him to be respectful, compassionate, and accepting. He was a great kid and I am sure he was the same as an adult. I spoke with him on the phone awhile back and we laughed at the old times and all the things the girls put him through. I am so thankful I got to talk to him and I will always remember that call. Johnny and Sandy, I can't imagine your grief, but be assured he will be missed as much as he was loved. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.
Sincerely, Aileen Moore
