

Sally Ann Farley

February 19, 1943 - October 11, 2025

Sally Ann Farley, age 82, passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 11, 2025, in Muskogee, Oklahoma, surrounded by her children. She was born on February 19, 1943, one of seven children born to Rufus Corbin “Jiggs” Cook and Naomi Kathleen Dause Cook (Granny Cat).

Sally grew up in Muskogee, Oklahoma, where she graduated from Muskogee Public Schools before entering the workforce. She began her career at Brockway Glass, where she met Robert Lewis. They were married and made their home in Braggs, Oklahoma, where they built a family together and raised three children-Gale, Robbie, and Stoney.

After many years at Brockway Glass, Sally and Robert left their jobs to start their own dozer business while also raising cattle and growing watermelons. Sally also worked at Braggs Public Schools as both a custodian and bus driver. She later dedicated many years to Walmart.

Sally was preceded in death by her parents, Jiggs and Naomi; and her husband, Robert Lewis. Later in life, she met and married John Farley, with whom she shared many years before his passing. She was also preceded in death by her siblings, Jimmy Cook, Betty Spencer, Johnny Cook, and Danny Cook; and great-grandson, Trapper White.

Sally is lovingly survived by her children, Gale and husband Red Russell of Checotah, Roberta Lewis of Braggs, and Stoney Lewis of Muskogee. Also left to cherish her memory are her grandchildren, Ashley White and husband Justin of Fort Gibson, Robert Lewis and wife Tamara of Muskogee, Jennifer Lewis of Henryetta, and Wyatt Lewis and wife Sage of Missouri. She is also survived by her siblings, Bobby Cook, Carol Smith and husband Tom, as well as many beloved great-grandchildren.

A family conducted memorial service will be planned for a later date.
