“ Sandy was always a good friend of mine, having known her since our days at Grant Foreman. I'm not sure if I ever knew anyone with more energy and joy of life than her. Let's light a candle in her memory, and remember how good and kind she was.

“ A ray of sunshine. Sandy just glowed and when she smiled she was brilliantly bright. You couldn't be in a bad mood around Sandy, and if you were when you arrived, you weren't for long. She always shared her joy as she loved to live it in the beauty of the country with Brian. You couldn't help smiling and laughing back. Her personality and that smile just flowed out to anyone around her. Even a few years ago, she still had that smile, that's how strong her spirit and personality were. Now, she is at peace and is letting loose her brilliance in another place. It is heartbreaking to lose someone who was so spirited and delightful, but we are honored and grateful to have known her and been her friend. Wherever you are now, Sandy, light it up, girl. You will be missed so very much. To Brian and the family, our hearts go out to you for your loss of such a beautiful woman.

I remember the day of Brian & Sandy's wedding: It was outside of her mother's home. It was a beautiful sunny day. I can honestly say I had never seen her happier on that wonderful day. I hold many memories of her in my heart that reach all the way back to our sophomore year in high school. May God comfort and bless the Francis/Culver family. Amen.

My heart is heavy with sadness for the loss of an angel. I met Sandy in 7th grade home ec, she took up for me and became my hero when an older girl was picking on me. I have never nor will I ever have a friend like I had in Sandy, I loved her with all my heart and will miss her with all my being. My prayers and condolences go out to Brian and the family. My heart is breaking for I will not be able to attend the memorial service.
