“ Though it has been years since I saw Sandi,her biological father was also my uncle,my mother’s brother. I remember playing with Sandi when we were little girls,we had so much fun. In the years that past and we were grown I saw all the girls and they came to our house in Fort Gibson. We all lost touch but I don’t know why,my mother was killed in a car wreck in 1962 and time just got away from us and we all went our different ways. I’m next to the oldest sister,Linda and have to baby sisters Jody and the littlest one Susie. I live in Florida now with my son’s family and have 2 grandsons and they call me Nana. I’m so sorry for your loss,I know you will miss her a lot. May she fly high with the Angels and hold her memory in your heart,I wish I would have got to know all of you but I’ll keep you all in my prayers.
