“ Sandy and I connected and quickly became friends along about 2002 when we were both going thru our first battle with cancer. I was about 4 months ahead of her on that journey so we spent a lot of time together comparing notes and encouraging each other. Sandy always had a bright outlook, a huge smile and an infectious laugh. We enjoyed spending time together visiting, shopping, going out to eat, or chatting about our kids and grandkids. Oh how she LOVED those grandkids! Sandy will be missed by many that loved and admired her, including myself. Jesus gave her strength to fight her battle admirably until He called her home. And now she is enjoying her Heavenly Reward in the Presence of her Lord and Savior. I will see her again some day when He calls my name. Until then - Rest In Peace My Dear Friend.
