Sarah Mae Walters, age 50, a cherished lifetime resident of Muskogee, Oklahoma, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 28, 2025. Born on May 1, 1975, in Muskogee to Gary David Ridley Sr. and Vera (Butler) Ridley, Sarah's roots in her hometown ran deep and true.

Sarah attended Muskogee Public Schools and graduated from Muskogee High School, where she formed lifelong friendships and built fond memories that she carried with her throughout her life. Her love for her community was evident in her daily interactions and heartfelt devotion to those around her.

On June 21, 2010, Sarah married the love of her life, Marshall Ray Walters. Their union was a testament to true companionship, faith, and mutual respect. Together, they shared many beautiful years filled with joy, laughter, and unwavering support for one another.

Sarah was deeply loved by her family, church members, and countless friends. Her warm smile, gentle spirit, and willingness to serve others made her a beloved presence in every room she entered. She leaves behind a legacy of kindness, devotion, and faith that will continue to inspire all who knew her.

Sarah's life will be celebrated by those who loved her dearly, and her memory will forever remain a guiding light in the hearts of her family, friends, and the Muskogee community. She will be missed profoundly but remembered with gratitude and love.

“ Sarah—a person who changed my life, as I’m sure she has many of you, in more ways than I can count. It’s hard to find the right words to capture nearly 40 years of friendship, laughter, & love, but I’m going to give it a try. Sarah came into my life in August 1987—our first day of 7th grade, and from that moment, I knew I had found a forever friend. Over the years, we’ve shared so much—the triumphs, the heartbreaks, the moves, weddings, births/gotcha days of children, and unfortunately deaths; but I couldn’t have made it through moments of life without her and for that I am truly grateful. We shared laughs, tears, and unforgettable conversations (even in the wee hours of the morning—when everyone else was sleeping—like normal people are supposed to do lol)—Sarah never judged me (or anyone) and always loved me for who I was—never for what I did or the choices I made (even if they weren’t always the best—oh how we learned from those lol). Sarah had an incredible way of making everyone feel seen & heard. What I will always remember most about Sarah is her kindness, her loyalty and her humor—oh my lanta- (what I would give to hear that one more time) her laugh was the best! Sarah’s laugh was infectious and would light up the darkest rooms—especially in the movie theaters lol). The truest and most honorable was her relationship with God—the relationship she was never scared to share with anyone—without even knowing she was and that’s exactly what happened with me. It took one Saturday night sleepover and the first time in a long time, Sunday morning church, where I heard her dad, Mr. Gary preach for the very first time. A moment I will never forget and appreciate to this day! So thank you, Ridley family for that!

Our friendship wasn’t just about the good times—though we have had plenty of those, it was built on trust, understanding, and unconditional love. Even when life got complicated, or when we went for weeks—sometimes month without talking, we always were able to pick right back up—because that’s when I learned what a true friendship was—it lasts through everything.

As I write this today, I feel an emptiness, like most of you, that words cannot fill, but I also feel immense gratitude. I am lucky—truly lucky—to have Sarah in my life for nearly 40 years! I will carry her laughter, her wisdom, and her love with me for the rest of my life. Thank you Ridley's & Walters family for sharing her with me! Sarah truly made the world better just by being in it! Rest easy, my forever friend. You'll never be forgotten—not by me, not by anyone who was blessed to know you. You have truly been one of my greatest blessings. I love you & will miss you dearly, Sarah Mae!
