“ My Aunt Sherry was more than an Aunt to me. She was another mother to me as well. Every Sunday we all gathered at Grandmas house, eat dinner and then Sherry fixed Granny’s hair. Uncle Donnie watched football and would doze off at times to the chatter of the family gathered around the kitchen table. We shared life, love, loss and celebrations around that table. Aunt Sherry was there after the birth of my children and came to cheer me up when sad with post partem depression. She was a stable force in our lives that is cherished. She and mom had a sisterly bond that never waivered. She was crafty and could sew like a dream. She was funny and had a beautiful smile. She always looked amazing with her hair, makeup and clothes, a trait she passed to Gena. She took me to the 4-H deess review and vought me a pin for my award. We listened to crocodile rock. She was far too many things with far too many memories to list here . Enough to fill a book. I love you so much Aunt Sherry. May you be at peace with all our loved ones gone before. Until we meet again.....Mickie
