Sharon dedicated her career to serving as an ER nurse at Wagoner Community Hospital, where she worked diligently for many years before her retirement.

Beyond her professional achievements, Sharon found immense joy in the simple pleasures of life. She loved reading and puzzle books, but her greatest joy was always her family.

“ Sharon and I became good friends while working at Wagoner Community Hospital. We bonded with one another because our father's had both died with ALS. We took many trips together with our husbands to Nashville, Cades Cove Park in the Smokey Mountains, and New Orleans. She will be missed greatly!!
