“ Sharon was five years old when I was born. She felt more like a cousin than an aunt as I was growing up. I loved staying the night with Granny & Grandpa because I could play with Sharon. She made a real impression on me during my early teens with her makeup and teased hair styles. To me she was the most beautiful young woman I had ever seen up close, picture perfect; those images have never left my memory. Her voice & laughter were uniquely hers, unforgettable. She's now home with Jesus, her body and mind restored, joining so many of our other loved ones. My deepest condolences to all those left to mourn her passing. You all have and will remain in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Gayla Turner 🌹
