

Sherman W. Woodworth

January 27, 1950 - September 24, 2019

Sherman Woodworth, the son of Eddie and Bertha Woodworth, was born on January 27th, 1950 in Muskogee Oklahoma and departed this life on September 24th, 2019 at the age of 69. Sherman being the lifelong “Okie” that he was went into the family business as a concrete finisher after high school. He married the love of his life, Deanna Nail, on July 21st, 1977. Their union was blessed with one daughter in 1978 and twin sons in 1982.

Sherman retired from Whitlock Packaging. After retirement, Sherman enjoyed watching his grandkids and watching old western shows, The Price Is Right, boxing, Nascar, and Little House On The Prairie. You could guarantee he’d be watching the Barret Jackson Auction if it was on.

Sherman enjoyed spending time with his family, fishing, looking at and working on cars, and of course, bingo and the casino. You could always count on Sherman for a good “Dad Joke” and he would always let you know where to find the good deals around town.

He will be missed dearly.
