“ Sherry was my best friend for 43 years. I remember flying out to OK to see her when she was living in the farmhouse by her mom and dad. She picked me up at the Tulsa airport and when we drove up to the house there was this really handsome strong man coming around the house to lift a cow. I was single at the time, and said, "wow, who is that? She looked at me with disbelief in her eyes and commented, " Kittie, that is my Daddy!"

She always listened to all the drama in my life, sometimes just listened, sometimes gave advice and always said, " I will pray for you and I love you." She was the best!
