“ There was a time I went to the dairy queen and your Mom came to the walk up window outside. I barely had enough money to pay for my order and all in coins I had scraped up. Your Mom was one of the most kind and gentle person that I have ever known in my life. She looked at me with her kind smile as I proceeded to dig in my pockets and count the small change. She said, that's alright huh, you go ahead and enjoy. We were one of the poorest families in town, everyone knew that, but she allowed me to keep my dignity and self esteem. She was very loving!

I shall never forget!
