

Sidney Lee Wright

November 13, 1942 - April 26, 2026

Sidney Lee Wright, 83, of Muskogee, Oklahoma went to be with his Lord and Savior on April 26, 2026. He was born on November 13, 1942, in Muskogee, Oklahoma to Clarence Lemual Wright and Tululah Pearl (Stevens) Wright. Sidney dedicated much of his life to his craft in the sheet metal industry. He owned and operated the O.K. Tin Shop for 30+ years before retiring, and also spent time working with Rod's Heat & Air. Known for his strong work ethic and skillful hands, Sidney took pride in his trade and the relationships he built along the way.

On February 9, 1963, Sidney married the love of his life, Patricia J. (Pitman) Wright. Together, they built a life rooted in love, commitment, and shared memories. He was a devoted husband and a steady presence for his family. Outside of work, Sidney had a passion for racing and enjoyed trips to Tunica and Las Vegas casinos. He was known for his distinctive style and personality, summed up in the things he loved most: cigars, sideburns, and Cadillacs. These weren't just interests—they were part of what made Sidney unforgettable.

He will be remembered for his strong character, his sense of humor, and the lasting impression he left on everyone who knew him.

Sidney was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Pearl Wright, Daughter Debbie Wright, Brother and Sister-in-law Montie Lee and Faye Wright, Sister and Brother-in-law Joyce and Darrell Boos, and grandson Dakota Bratcher.

“ Sid and his crew came into Western Sizzlin' almost every weekday for lunch after it opened in 1978. He ate the same thing every day. As soon as he figured out how we wrote orders, he started ordering that way. 1MB with no sc. He was so friendly and funny!
