“ *But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;*

*As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain;
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.*

“ My father was a great man. He raised 5 Sons. EVERY Man over 18 in my family is a graduate of the US Army School of Infantry (82nd, 8th ID, 10th Mountain, Special Forces) and my father is the sole reason that we are the way we are. I want to thank everyone in Muskogee for how well he is remembered and thank you for bringing all the food over to the house and the well wishes. I thank God every day that my father raised me as he did. He was the Last of the Mohicans - I love you Papa. - Eneliko Smith (2nd Oldest Son).

“ Sio Santini was always so loving to our grandsons who are great friends with his sons. They were always welcomed at their house and spent many happy weekends with Sio and his sons. He was a happy, creative, involved father who adored his wife and sons. He welcomed us to church the first time we visited and always had a big smile for everyone. We are grieving for his family as they deal with the loss of an amazing man. Tara, we will continue to pray for you all. Love from the McCain Family

“ *On Monday, July 10th, at the ballfield and we were talking to Sio then he started talking about his sons, he said everyone thinks they're my grandsons but they're my sons and I couldn't be prouder of them. It will be greatly missed! He was so kind and nice to everyone. Sio always had a smile on his face and seemed so full of energy. Our prayers and deepest sympathy are with you and your sons. “ Upon walking up to a softball field for my first game with a new team, after not playing for several years, Sio was the first person I encountered. He knew I was new, held out his hand for a welcoming shake and said, "I'm Sio!" I asked if that was like the initials, C.O. and he responded, "S I O, bro," with a smile, "Sio Santini" he said proudly. What a positive spirit Sio is, always full of encouragement and certainly very present, living in the moment. You will be missed and forever in our hearts and minds as teammates. RIP

“ Tara I think I met you 3 times at the ballpark and the boys a bunch of times. I could just tell how much he loved you and those boys. He was a great guy in every sense of the word. We played ball together for several years. We laughed together and did have a few serious moments. He was an incredible human being. The good Lord broke the mold when he made him. I am having a hard time writing this through the tears. He was my best buddy and I will miss him dearly. I have to say he was one of the greatest guys I have ever met. You were blessed to have had a lot of years with him. He took his sense of humor to heaven with him and everyone up there is amazed at how incredible this guy is. May God be with you in these incredible hard times.

“ I am both shocked and saddened by the passing of Sio. He was a tough man with a big heart - always offering to help if he thought you needed it. Always smiling and laughing. He and his family are the best neighbors I've ever had. Sio and I mostly interacted in passing and now I wish I'd taken the time to just sit and visit for a while like I'd intended to. He will be both remembered and missed by my family and I.

“ Sio was such a wonderful and thoughtful neighbor. If I was outside doing a project, he always stopped and offered encouragement. My Grandson was watching him on his tractor a couple of weeks ago and Sio made a special trip by our house so Andon could get a closer look and talk to him. We could not ask for better neighbors than Sio and Tara. We were honored to have known Sio. His kindness and generosity will be greatly missed. Our prayer go out to his family.

“ Sio was the most loving father and husband a family could ask for. He spoiled us to no end. He made sure we had everything we need. There were many times he would come home with a box of chocolates for me or something special for the kids. In life it's the small things that count. Sio showed his love for his family in so many wonderful ways. He will be missed and never forgotten by his family. We love you Sio.thank you for everything you did for us. Your one in a million!!

So very sorry to learn of his passing today and your loss. He was a good man. I knew him and Oscar in Vegas. My own Son Norm (RIP) worked with him moving and has also passed away. Thought of him today with all the storms and remembered he moved to OK, wanted to see if he and his family was ok, hope so. Much Love to you. RIP Joe, my friend

“ God bless all of the wonderful family of Joseph in this difficult time. The world is much less without him; without his loyalty, love, and wisdom. However, all of what made him great lives on within us, and we should strive to embody those aspects.

“ My heart breaks for his wife and family. Everyone at Big Lots is heart broken. I have never met some one so kind and genuine. He loved coming to deliver furniture and he always had a smile. Santini you sir will be missed greatly by your big lots crew. Fly high in heaven with the angels!

“ My heart goes out to Sio's wife and children. God grant them the strength to make it through these dark days. Sio was my softball teammate for 3 years. He was an even better human being than he was a softball player. I know he's up there right now pitching to Jesus and trying to strike him out. Good luck with that, old friend.
