“ I think most of the people who knew Stacey in the last 10 years or so of her life, missed out on knowing the real Stacey.

Stacey was if not the most popular, one of the most popular girls at Hefner Junior High and Putnam City West High School in OKC. She was probably so popular in part, because of her outward natural beauty. But when people speak with me about her, people who knew her then, they always mention her warmth - that she was just genuinely one of the sweetest people they ever knew.

For me, as my oldest big sister, she was a role model in grace and most memories I have of her are filled with laughter and love.

If you or someone you know is misusing or abusing alcohol, there are a number of different paths toward a sober and healthy life and my hope for you is that you will choose better.

Stacey, tater, Stacey Girl - I think of you at least a few, if not more times a day and miss you so much. Love and Peace
