

Steven A. Knite

August 2, 1985 - May 7, 2015

Steven Alexander Knite

Born on August 2, 1985 to Pamela Neugebauer Knite and Paul Knite in Omaha, Nebraska. Steven was raised in Florida with his mom and brothers, Paul Knite and Robbie Dickson. Steven spent his last four years in Muskogee Oklahoma.

Steven is irreplaceable. Steven was fun loving, playful, energetic, full of life. When Steven was around there was never a dull moment. He brought more joy to life than anybody ever thought possible. Anybody that knows him couldn't help but love him. He had away about him that you couldn't help but love. He was a simply perfect man. When it came to being a father he was proud to be a father and a step father. His children loved him so much. He always talked about his babies. Nevaeh and Carter meant the world to him. Nobody in this world can ever replace Steven. He holds a special place in everybody's heart. There wasn't much in life he didn't enjoy. From fishing, swimming, 4 wheelers, ice cream, watching movies, hiking, camping, working, just about everything in life he enjoyed. Steven could strike up a conversation with anybody about anything. Steven always had something to say. He was not a man of very little words when he thought it he said it. Steven had a smile that could brighten the darkest of rooms. Steven smiles always made the days brighter. Steven was the happiest when he was with his kids. Just the thought of them would put the biggest smile on his face. He loved his children in away no words could every explain. He was a perfect father and step father. His children were his world. Neveah and Carter had more love than they knew. Along with his love he adored his brothers, and looked up to his older brother Paul. When it came to his brothers he was extremely proud of them. He had stories that could go on for days. The bond between them was inseparable. When Steven spoke of his brothers he would always smile and usually laugh because of the craziness of the story he was about to tell. Steven describe his brothers as his hero's. Steven was very proud of his mother, he always said how loving and caring she was. He said she was strong beautiful and independent. His love for her was amazing. Steven lived his life to the fullest. He was loved and how could he not be? He was a kind soul with a heart of gold. The type of person you couldn't get enough of. No matter how angry he would make you he could make you smile all at the same time. Steven would do anything for anybody. He was the type of guy who would give you his shirt off his back in the dead of winter. Steven had a hard time telling anybody no. Steven loved life and anybody in his life loved him. Words could go on forever describing Steven. The best words to describe Steven are irreplaceable, absolutely amazing, loving, and perfect. Stevens life was no where close to long enough. He is Resting In Paradise now. And I know the love our could move mountains. Until we meet again.

“ Steven i have so many great memories with you ill never forget. We had fun times always, whether were riding those four wheelers together or going out to the galaxay skating or just hanging out with you at the house we always had great times. Ill never forget when you would write me every morning early before work then we would talk all night. Love you and always will. Your gone but never forgotten. My prayers go to your family and your kids. We will meet again one day xo

“ *Steven had that laugh that nobody could ever forget! He was a pain in the butt when I would come down to visit when we were younger, he would always pick on me with those stupid lizards because he knew I was terrified of them! I will forever miss and love him. I know now your not in pain in any way and are hanging out with our grandma, my mom , uncle mike, grandpa and my dad!! Please look down and watch over your babies and steer them in the right direction by whispering in their ear when they are not thinking smart! I love ya cousin and you'll always be remembered and thought about !
Love me, forever and always your cousin

“ My memories of Steven are childhood memories. When we were little we spent every holiday together. My family was always at Aunt Pam's for party's and again every holiday. We didn't have family in Florida, so the Knites became our family! And I'll never forget babysitting the boys and Steven always refused to go to bed and gave me such a hard time! But Steven was also a sensitive person with a big heart! God rest your soul, you will be missed dearly...

“ My most favorite memories are the ones of you teaching me life lesson. Such as taking me alligator hunting and teaching me how to protect myself when paul knife wanted to pick on me since I was the only girl and you both refused to let me be a wimp. I can remember back to mornings when we would curl up in your blanket in the chair and watch cartoons and eat cereal while we waited for everyone else in the house to wake up, and how you and paul taught me to fish in the back canal. You showed me it was okay not to be afraid and that fear was my worst enemy. You always made sure you told me you loved me with that amazing smile on your face and you never missed the chance to give me a huge hug! You always made sure Robbie and I were good before you would go hang out with your friends. You Paul and Robbie are more like brothers to me and little Dave rather than cousins! You will forever stay in my heart Steven! I'll love you forever! R.I.P. Big cousin I know your at peace and safe now!
