

Sue Box Cantrell

November 10, 1939 - February 2, 2015

Sue Box Cantrell passed away February 2, 2015 in Muskogee, OK. She was born Mary Sue Box on November 10, 1939 to Henry Hugh Box and Eula (Campbell) Box in Tahlequah, OK. Sue grew up working with her family in the Box IGA Grocery. She went to school in Tahlequah graduating as Valedictorian of the 1958 Senior Class. She went to college and graduated with a teaching degree. She married Alton Williams in Tahlequah. From this union came two beautiful girls, Suzanne and Wynter. After her marriage to Mr. Williams, she married Roy Joe Cantrell in 1978.

She and Roy Joe moved to Muskogee where they owned and operated TitlePac Inc. before selling to their son-in-law, Mark Pearson and his wife Gail Pearson. Roy Joe and Sue loved to travel and spent many winters enjoying the sun in Scottsdale, Arizona. Sue was an accomplished organist and played for the Methodist Church in Tahlequah and Wesley Methodist in Muskogee. She was an elegant, intelligent and beautiful Christian woman. She loved her children and grandchildren and most recently her great grandson, Cale. She is preceded in death by her parents, her brother Maurice Box, her husband Roy Joe Cantrell and her daughter Suzanne Williams Cantrell Pearson.

Sue is survived by her daughter, Dr. Wynter Williams Kipgen and her husband Randy Wall of Edmond; her son-in-law and daughter-in-law, Mark and Gail Pearson of Muskogee; her grandchildren, Chris Pearson and his wife Hillary, and Catrina Pearson all of Muskogee, and Ian Kipgen of Edmond; and her great grandson, Cale Hugh Pearson. She also leaves to cherish her memory her aunt, Helen Snow of Oklahoma City and her cousin, Ben Snow and nephews and nieces.

Memorial Services will be 3:00 P.M. Friday, February 6, 2015 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Eric Fletcher officiating.

“ I am a neighbor of Sue's at 3807 Regency. I didn't know her well but we did speak over the phone periodically. I spoke with her on the phone Friday or Sat. and we had a wonderful visit. She was the most gracious and personable lady. She will be missed here at Park Ridge. Im so sorry for your loss. I would be happy to help your family in any way out here if you need me. You are in my thoughts and prayers, Aileen Moore
