

Susan J. (Harrison) Roberts

April 28, 1959 - January 19, 2018

Susan Jean (Harrison) Roberts, born April 28, 1959 to James and Rosie Jane (Janie) Harrison in Muskogee, Oklahoma went home on Friday, January 19, 2018, following a brief illness.

Susan was preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Mary Cricklin; paternal grandparents, Buster and Delia Harrison; and in-laws, Clifford and Lela Roberts; father, James Harrison; and husband, Darrell Roberts.

She and Darrell were married on November 23, 1985 in Keefeton, Oklahoma. They were blessed with their daughter, Jordan Dill and husband Waylon; son, Aaron Roberts and wife Leandra; daughter, Sarah Roberts; grandchildren, Kaden, Raylon, Sawyer, Jay, Gabe, Kailynn, Peyton, Micah, Bradyn, Camilla and Daxten; and Lilliana, due in May. She is also survived by her mother, Rosie Jane "Janie" Harrison; her sister, Karen Stauss and husband Jim.

Susan was a member of Timothy Baptist Church and grew up attending Keefeton A/G Church.

She was employed by Muskogee Schools as an Indian Education Counselor. Susan loved spending time with her family and especially her grandchildren. She was very active in all their lives.

She will be greatly missed, but as she took her last breath here on earth, we know her next step was entering heaven to be with Jesus, her husband, and her father.

The family will receive friends from 5:30-7:30pm, Tuesday, January 23, 2018 at Cornerstone Funeral Home.

Services honoring Susan's life will be 2PM, Wednesday, January 24, 2018 at Timothy Baptist Church with Pastor Kelly Payne and Rev. Joedy Hendrix officiating. Interment will follow at Agnew Cemetery with Aaron Roberts, Jim Stauss, Waylon Dill, Robert Dill, Wendell Milne, Phillip Buggy Barnoskie serving as pallbearers.

“ As we say goodbye to our beloved, Susan, my brother is welcoming the love of his life to be together again. It is a comfort to know there will be many welcoming her to her eternal resting place. I pray that my nieces and nephews look at this as not a loss, but just as a time before we see her again. With all my love, Aunt Susan.

“ Susan was an amazing person and very special to me in every way possible. She had the most amazing soul and giving and sweet spirit. I will always miss her and think about every day. I remember when me and my sister and mom lived across from her on chestnut and me and autumn would go visit her alot. My heart and prayers go to her and her family today. Love u Aunt Susan always and forever love Sommer

“ Susan was the most beautiful person both inside and out. I treasure the memories I have with her. When I was a little girl, Janie was my babysitter. She is a bonus mom and Susan my bonus sister/aunt... Susan would come pick up Janie and I and take us to town. I remember her taking me to the McDonalds drive through, getting me a happy meal and then taking her mom to Furr's to eat because I was a picky eater and she wanted me to enjoy my lunch. There were a few times on our way home she would let me get out of my seatbelt when we got to the dirt road and let me stand up through the sunroof of her car... I didn't know anyone else who had a sunroof and I just KNEW she had to be the coolest woman ever. A few times, I remember her getting out of the car at the Keefeton Dairy Lunch and letting Janie drive home... We would all be laughing so hard. I also remember when all of you kids were born. I was 8 years old when Jordan was born...I carried all three of you guys all over Keefeton Assembly of God Church. I went home with Susan and Darrell and "took care of you" several times and always begging to stay longer with Susan. So many memories... She loved everyone deeply. She was one of the greatest women I know and I feel blessed to have had her as a part of my life.
