

Thomas L Carter

October 3, 1946 - August 8, 2014

Thomas L. Carter, 67, of Muskogee, Oklahoma passed away Friday, August 8, 2014 in Muskogee. He was born October 3, 1946 in Webbers Falls, Oklahoma to Charley D. Carter and Ila Clopton Carter.

Thomas proudly served his country as a member of the United States Army from which he received an Honorable discharge.

He was a commercial truck driver by trade and was known for his kindness and friendliness. If he ever met a stranger it was only temporary.

Thomas was preceded in death by his father, Charley Carter; his sister, Lola McCuan; his brothers, Ronnie and Lonnie Carter; his grandparents, A.D. and Minnie Clopton, James D. and Jessie Carter.

He is survived by his companion, Audrey Thomas of the home; his daughters, Tomi Jo Baxter and husband, Chris of Clarksville, AR, Kacy Carter of California; his mother, Ila Carter of Gore, OK; his brothers, Charley Carter and wife Rosa, of Gore, and Roger Carter and wife Brandi of Wagoner, OK; his grandchildren, Shayanna and Savanna Baxter of Clarksville, AR, Tyler Lemons, Kassidy Smith, and Jonathan Clingham, all of California, his brother-in-law, Jack McCuan of Bakersfield, CA; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family members, and thousands of friends, all who will miss him dearly.

Funeral services for Thomas will be 2:00 p.m., Thursday, August 14, 2014 at Fort Gibson National Cemetery with Rev. Wendell Cox officiating. Full military honors will be presented.
