“ You were a good friend & I'm gonna miss you. Your humor was like no other. Kenzie will always remember her driver who picked her up after school (even if you were late sometimes). God bless you friend.

“ My condolences to the family, as this is my family. So sorry Loretta and David. My memory is that I can know and run around with these brothers during our teenage years, but not even know the family connection until we became adults.

My mom talked about being so close to Loretta growing up and mentioned her last name, talked about her boys, I couldn't believe it.

Praying for y'all as I know there are more burdens you're going thru this passed year, my heart is hurting for you.

“ I am so sorry for your loss...I remember working the auctions and both boys helping with the concession trailer. Later in highschool Ms. Loretta would allow him to come stay at my apartment so we could work on his homework and term papers or whatever to get him thru the last two years of highschool...Bryan loved to "borrow" Dylan when he was a baby to take to the mall and patrol for girls claiming Dylan was a babe magnet. He also had to dress Dylan up in the latest stuff he would buy like a chicago bulls wind suit and baby jordans...I loved him like a little brother and uncle to my son..I will miss him greatly. He was an awesome person with one of the biggest hearts od anyone I have ever met. My life was blessed by his love and by me having had the privilege of growing up with Bryan and David and loving them both. Shawn if you need anything let me know and Ms. Loretta I love you and if you need me hollar my prayers and love go out for your family.

“ I am going to miss you my friend. I have lots of good memories growing up with you. You were always more like a brother to me than a friend. I will always cherish those memories.

I remember the first time I heard the song I can only imagine, Bryan sang I kept getting him to play it again and he did without tiring. I can only imagine your joy in the presence of the King of Kings and Big L. I will miss you my brother.
