“ I missed most of my cousins childhood, but reconnecting as adults was so much fun. My favorite memories of Tommy are from when we all lived in Coweta. His family and mine got together often for various activities and we always had a blast. The most enjoyable for me was when Tommy and Peanut would get to telling "stories" and I would see them both laughing so hard they could barely breathe. No subject was off limits, and most times true events were stretched to the limit. We all knew it, but the telling was so much better with the elasticity. RIP Tommy, We're all going to miss you!
