“ Tim was an amazing man of faith. He would give you the shirt off his back. He had such a servants heart because he understood the heart of Christ. We will miss him here but I know he is in awe of God and worshipping at His feet in his whole and healed body.

“ Cousins are present in our lives to varying degrees and a lifelong friend, sometimes your first lifelong friend. The beauty of Cousin Tim, when we would meet up it was as if nothing changed, no time gap, and visit as if we have seen each other yesterday. Cousins learn from each other, what I learned about Tim is his calm spirit, dry sense of humor, and smirky-smile. I associate my enjoyment of fishing with Tim. He was always so excited about landing that big tuna or striped bass. Cousins understand family uniqueness, dysfunction, and how it operates. Cousin Tim shared gratitude for his immediate family and did not alter his love of relatives. I already miss hearing your voice and feel the void that you are no longer close by. Be in peace dear Cousin Tim. Love always, Kellie Garrett-Ekeland
