*Dear Hiseley family, Sorry to hear of uncle Tommie's passing, but I know he's just rejoicing in Heaven with Aunt Robbie and all his family who have gone before him. Uncle Tommie was a wonderful man, remember all the fun times we had growing up and having big dinners, spending nights, and playing outside with each others I lost my husband Just before Thanksgiving of 2014 and although we will miss them we will see them again. Sorry I want be able to make it to service today, but keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers .
Love Linda and family*

“ I always thought Grandpa was over 6 ft tall and bullet proof. I even had Larry convinced before he met him for the first time. Apparently I was wrong about his height but in my eyes he was the tallest man I knew. My heart is happy that our Lord finally called him home. Love you Papa Tic-Toc.
