What a tragedy, a life gone too soon! I absolutely loved TJ!! I loved watching him grow up. I loved watching him play baseball and basketball!! I loved having him at my house. I loved his beautiful smile. I loved his huge heart!

I didn't get to see him much after they graduated but I do remember seeing him a few years ago. He looked so happy and all he wanted to talk about was his kids. You could see the love for them in his eyes, as he spoke about them. I was so proud of him, & I told him I was. I knew he would make a great dad someday because of all the love in his heart! Even though I didn't see him for several years, my heart broke when I heard of his passing. It's hard to believe. A beautiful life gone too soon. I hope TJ knew how much he was loved.

I pray for his children, his mom, and the rest of his family and friends. I pray God will comfort them during this difficult time and all the years to come. I love you all. Thanks for sharing TJ with me. I will cherish all the wonderful memories I have of him. May God Bless You

You are in my prayers! 💔🙏

Love, Debbie Morgan

“ I will always be grateful to you for saving me from the misery that had become my life, you taught me how to have fun and laugh when I'd all but forgotten how. You gave me my smile back and brought the light back into my life. I am so incredibly sorry that I couldn't save you when it was your turn to need it. You sir, were my favorite person in the whole wide world, you were devilishly handsome, smart and ridiculously fun to be around, and I would sacrifice the whole wide world for the chance to go back and do things different that day

I visited with Tommy only one time and that's all it took for me to know for sure that he loved his children. Rest peacefully, Tommy “ TJ and I shared an unwavering love of all things OSU Sports. I could always count on him to stand with me in supporting the Cowboys during any and all Bedlam games, while the rest of the family cheered for OU. TJ also loved his girls Madison and Kennedy, as he did his son Xander. His passing leaves a huge void, and he will be missed.
