“ To me Tommy was like a brother and such a dear, dear friend. We shared our four year apprenticeship at Brockway Glass. The day we received our journeyman's cards he made me a ring out of wire and put a brass bobble on the top. When we took our oath he handed me the ring and said it had been a pleasure to serve his apprenticeship with me and that we would always be married in the field of mould-making. I have that little ring to this day and it is a reminder of what a true friend he was to me and everyone who knew him. I will never forget him and the long hard job we shared. Lucy, I wish only the best for you and Nicki and all the other people who loved him so much. May God bless you and keep you with his almighty grace. With a sad heart and my humble prayers I say goodbye to my dear friend, TOMMY.
