August 26, 1940 - September 17, 2013

Travis Simeroth
1940-2013

Travis Simeroth was born August 26, 1940 to his father, George “Pat” Simeroth and mother, Nell “Nellie” Simeroth. He was born into a dairy farming family and worked in the industry until the death of his parents.

He attended Okmulgee Tech specializing in Culinary Arts and Mechanics.

Travis worked at Tulsa Brake and Spring, retiring in 2009.

His proudest service to his country was in the National Guards for 27 years.

He spent the remainder of his years working on his farm and enjoying his hobby – reading.

Travis was preceded in death by his parents, Pat and Nellie; his sisters, Virginia, Charlene, and Patricia.

Travis went quietly to be with his Maker and his family...September 15, 2013.

A memorial service for Travis will be 1:00 p.m., Thursday, October 31, 2013 at Fort Gibson National Cemetery with Rev. Danny Barks officiating.
