Trena was the kind of woman who loved deeply and lived fully. Her family meant everything to her, especially her kids and grandkids, who brought endless joy to her life. She loved the freedom of riding motorcycles, the peace of hunting and fishing, and making memories with the people she loved most. Her strength, laughter and adventurous spirit will never be forgotten. Though our hearts are broken, we are thankful for every moment, every story, and every memory she gave us. She will forever be loved and deeply missed.
