

Victoria Sue Hammond

December 14, 1946 - June 16, 2011

Victoria Sue Hammond, 64, aka Vicki, of Muskogee passed away Thursday, June 16, 2011. She was born December 14, 1946 in Seattle, Washington to Cecil E. Robbins and Norma Sue Bertschi. She worked for a span of 20 years at Stifel Nicolaus Investments as office manager.

Vicki was a 1965 graduate of Putnam City High School. Her hobbies included spending time with her grandkids and with her friends outside in the courtyard. She enjoyed watching the Kansas City Chiefs and NASCAR. Her favorite driver was Dale Earnhardt, Jr. #88. Vicki could also be found inside with her two cats, Sadie and Callie.

She was preceded in death by her father and Randy Robbins, her brother. Vicki is survived by her daughter, Kimberly Carpenter and husband, Jeff of Dublin, Ohio; son, Kris Hammond of Newalla, Oklahoma; mother Norma Sue Robbins; sister, Cynthia Robbins, both of Dublin, Ohio; grandchildren, Devin Hammond of Ft. Gibson, Oklahoma, Graham Carpenter and Jacqueline Carpenter of Dublin, Ohio.

The family would like to extend their sincere gratitude to Flora Murphy, Betty Liniger, Shirley Barzar, and the staff and nurses at Professional Home Hospice for all the loving care they gave to Vicki in her final months. They were her angels here on earth.
