

Victoria Page

January 26, 1945 - August 2, 2025

Victoria Page, affectionately known as Mrs. Vickie, passed away peacefully on August 2, 2025, surrounded by family. Born on January 26, 1945, in Lamesa, Texas, she was the beloved daughter of Luther Cecil Richardson and Sudie Mae (Watterson) Richardson.

A proud graduate of Pueblo High School in Tucson, AZ, Victoria furthered her education at Virgil's Beauty College in Muskogee, Oklahoma. Her skill and creativity as a hairdresser became her lifelong calling, where she touched countless lives with her warmth, laughter, and care. She dedicated much of her career to her own beauty shops and SmartStyle Salon, where she built deep friendships with coworkers and clients alike, and ultimately retired from the profession she loved in 2009.

Victoria's service to the community went beyond the salon. She served as Deputy Sheriff at Wagoner County and as an emergency services switchboard operator at Wagoner Hospital, offering her steady voice and compassionate heart to those in need.

In October 1998, Victoria married Perry Don Page, the love of her life, in Muskogee, Oklahoma, expanding her circle of love and devotion. Family remained the cornerstone of her life; she cherished every moment spent with loved ones, gathering memories filled with laughter, support, and joy.

Mrs. Vickie will be remembered for her unwavering kindness, her fierce sense of loyalty, and her ability to find beauty in every person she met. Her loving presence will be profoundly missed by her family, friends, colleagues, and all whose lives she graced.

She was preceded in death by her parents Luther and Sudie Richardson; brother, L.E. Richardson; and sisters, Polly Abbott and Leona Rogers.

Victoria is survived by her loving husband, Perry "Don" Page of the home; her sons, Mason Page, Curtis Page both of Muskogee, OK; her daughters, Kathi Kennedy of Tulsa, OK, Monica Mefford of Canadian, OK, Cynthia Wayne of Camp Verde, AZ, Rebecca Avrett of Muskogee, OK; stepdaughters, Annie Kingcade of Westville, OK, Wendy Moss of Collinsville, OK, and Shannon Hampton of Muskogee, OK; sisters, Molly Holbrook of Muskogee, OK, and Martha Richardson of Tucson, AZ; several sons and daughters by heart; 18 grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; and countless others that served as her chosen family.

“ Don and family, I am so sorry to see Vickie passed away. She did my hair in the late 60's at the shop at "P" and East Okmulgee. She was very talented and always friendly. ❤️ Sending prayers for God to ease your grief.
